

Broadcasting <sup>and</sup> the Arts

director, producer, stage manager, audio-visual technician, video editor, presenter, editor, set designer, screen/scriptwriter, researcher production runner marketing executive, fundraiser, events organiser, salesperson, market researcher, charity officer

Marketing

Career Opportunities with...

Media <sup>and</sup> Film Studies manager, archivist, (arts) administrator,

personal assistant,
public relations officer,
receptionist,
records officer

Management

<sup>and</sup> PR

editor, journalist (tv, newspaper, magazine or web content) translator, copy writer, proofreader, book publicist, researcher

Publishing <sup>and</sup> Journalism

STOP PRESS: Studying Media & Film gives you great communication & research skills, as well as the ability to think creatively.